The sentence below carries four text annotations.

Highlighted, underlined, struck out and squiggled.

A second line is underlined here for comparison.

~~A third line is struck out here instead.~~

And a fourth is squiggled to mark uncertainty.

The note icon at the top right has an open popup.

Page two holds an ink stroke and free text.

Both were authored by another viewer, not by pdf.js.

The ink above is one polyline; the box below is editable text.
